There are only two precedents and, in both cases, the option was more or less forced upon the leader concerned. President Robert Mugabe formally withdrew in 2003, but only after Don McKinnon, then secretary general, declined to lift the suspension of Zimbabwe's membership. Apartheid South Africa chose to leave in 1961, but the Commonwealth had effectively compelled its departure by making racial equality a founding principle.

Then go tell it. In as simple a way as you can. And as consistently as possible. Remember that everything from your company that touches a customer or potential customer anywhere should deliver your brand story:

From the design elements on your business card, website and other collateral to how your customer service people answer the phone, the colors of your interior, the blog you write and the elevator speech you give at your next networking event. Everything should deliver that brand. The only way a customer can develop a relationship with a brand is to grasp what that brand stands for. Our job, as marketers, is to make that as easy as possible for the customer.

With its light dappled pergolas, olive groves and lemon trees the Italian countryside brought out an intensity of feeling in Howard's make up that is absent from all his early work. For example, in what might have been a conventionally picturesque scene showing peasant women washing clothes by a river, he uses soft yellows and suffused pinks to capture the hush that descends in the last moments before the sun sets. It's as though something in Howard relaxed when he got to Italy, so that the tight handling of paint and awkward drawing of human figures in the early work all but disappear.
